¹²to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ...”. The growth of our church and its kingdom vision influence in the Palm Springs community is directly tied to your pastors effectiveness at equipping you for the work of ministry, and your effectiveness at being obedient to use that equipping for the building up of the body. In this regard church is always easy because we are never under new management, we are always under the shepherding guidance of Jesus and the kingdom vision of going and making disciples. Let’s be encouraged church to relaunch toward the purposes that are only fulfilled in others coming into the kingdom of God.

The ECHO

Under New Management

The above phrase is one that you might find on a sign at a restaurant or maybe a hotel when the new owners want to convey that there has been a significant change in leadership. I heard a comedian comment that the “Under New Management” sign at a hotel should have a disclaimer that said, “but still the same old dump.” I mean has that sign ever made anyone say, “oh let’s go to that old hotel we never wanted to stay at because now it’s under new management”?

We are preparing to relaunch our church on September 15th, in effect saying to ourselves and more importantly to our community, that we are “under new management.” Not the management of Jerel, or Jerel’s vision, or some other aspect either personal to me, or some other person or groups of people in our church. Will this community find a kingdom sized vision that tethers them to something bigger and more exciting than any human goal or will it be the same old “dump” of human aspirations or accomplishments? The something bigger is actually “Someone” namely, God and His kingdom vision of Christ dying for our sins so that we might have a relationship with God that is as close as His Spirit that lives within us.

It is not a pastor’s job to accomplish God’s kingdom vision for the church that he serves. The pastor’s role as stated in Ephesians 4:11-12 is “¹¹ And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers,
